BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Submts for sanction the draft bye-laws relating to the registration of births and deaths by the Subordinate Municipal Council under Sec 48(1)(g) of the Mysore Municipal Regulation.

NOTES AND ORDERS

The D.C.'s letter to under disposal has been very independently worded. The letter creates an impression that all the subjects enumerated in Sec 48 of the M.C. Regn

There appears to be an mistake in the numbering which cannot be rectified now

Draft leg laws have been made by the Gubbi Mel cl and all of them have been subd for sanction. What was received with this letter are the following

(i) Draft leg laws relating to the registration of births and deaths under Sec 48(1) (p) of the Mel Regn &

(ii) Vaccination Byg laws under rule 24 of the Rules issued under the Vaccination Regulation.

The former leg-laws are noted upon in this file. The latter will be subd for orders separately

2. Chapter VI (pgs 60-61) of Govt model leg laws relate to the subject matter under disposal

3. The draft leg-laws in question are based on the leg-laws in force in the Davangere Municipality. The Davangere Byg-laws have been adopted with a few verbal alterations & omissions which have rendered the draft-leg laws unsatisfactory

The Daranghere bye-laws nos 4 & 5, are preferable to nos 5, & 6 of the draft. It is not clear why bye law no 8 of the former has been omitted in the draft.

4. Public The term "Public Institution" has not been mentioned in any bye-law. Nevertheless its definition has been given. It is not known what purpose this will serve.

5 Attention is invited to a few corrections made in red ink in the bye laws.

6. Bye law 7 says that information of Births and Deaths may be given in prescribed forms. What they are is not clear. Perhaps they are the schedules in Bye-Law 1. These have not been appended to the typed copies of the bye-laws but they are found among the ML office papers.

7 The citizens represented that the Patel & Shanbhogue may be appointed Sub-Registrars. The suggestion was not approved by the
